NOTE—Regarding Woodruff's of Wooley, England.

Regarding the genealogy of the Woodruff Family, published in Volume III of the Colonial Families of the United States, will say that the circumstances surrounding the record of Matthew Woodruff in said book are as follows:

Sometime in 1910 a party called on me stating that his name was Norris Woodruff, that he was from England and naturally well acquainted with the Woodruff Families there, that he was a descendant of the Woodruffs of Wooley, England, and for a consideration would give out details that would establish a direct connection between the Woodruffs of England and the Woodruffs of the United States. Naturally I was interested and agreed to pay his price for said information, which was as follows:

The Genealogy of Woodruffs of Wooley, England.

Coming down to the time of Sir David Woodruff of Poyle, who married in 1611 Lettice Duncombe.

Issue:

Matthew, born 1612 and died 1682
Thomas
David
George
Robert
Nicholas
Six daughters

He claimed he had investigated and found that Matthew Woodruff, the emigrant, was born in London in 1612, that he came from England with his wife, Hannah, and settled in Hartford, Conn., and died in Farmington, Conn., in 1682.

I advised him to take up the matter with Mr. George N. Mackenzie who was to publish Volume III of the Colonial Families of the United States.

Later Mr. Mackenzie wrote asking if I would furnish him the genealogy of my branch of the Woodruff Family in America from the time of Matthew Woodruff, the emigrant. If so, he believed a direct connection could be established between the Woodruff Family of Wooley, England and the Woodruff Family of America.

I agreed to this and furnished Mr. Mackenzie with the American Genealogy (My branch of the Woodruff Family) from Matthew Woodruff, the emigrant, and the same was published as it appears in Volume III of the Colonial Families of the United States. After this was published, it occurred to me to take up the matter and substantiate certain data furnished by Norris Woodruff. Therefore, entered into correspondence with several genealogists in London; after considerable research by them and considerable financial cost to me, they reported as far as they could learn, Sir David Woodruff of Poyle, England, had no son by the name of Matthew. They did, however, report five sons as described above.

Therefore, it is my sincere belief that this party who styled himself as Norris Woodruff and sold the information to Mr. Mackenzie and myself was an imposter, for as far as I can learn, Sir David Woodruff of Poyle, England, had no son by the name of Matthew—and if Matthew Woodruff, the emigrant, was connected with the Woodruffs of Wooley, England, it was through some other branch of the family.

NOTE—Regarding Noah Woodruff.

Timlow's History of Southington assigns Noah Woodruff as having only two children as follows:

Hannah, b. Oct. 4, 1753; d. Sept. 16, 1757.
Solomon, b. Dec. 11, 1763.

and states that at his death the male line became extinct.

This is clearly an error as published in Timlow's History of Southington, for on consulting the Farmington, Conn., Church Records, we find baptisms recorded of three more children born to Noah and Mary (Barnes) Woodruff, as follows:

Roswell, baptized June 12, 1768.
Ichabod and Castina, probably twins, baptized June 27, 1775.

Unfortunately these Church Records are not complete. Every little while there is a page missing, hence among others, the pages containing the baptisms between January 27, 1770 and March 27, 1774, are lost and this is the very period in which we should find the baptism of David Woodruff, son of Noah, who was born May 26, 1770.

Further than this, says Fred'k O. Woodruff (8), I know from my grandfather, Hiram Woodruff (6), son of David (5), that Hiram's (6), grandfather was Noah Woodruff and that Noah had a son named Roswell, who was my grandfather Hiram's uncle and with whom he was on intimate terms. There is no denying the facts of this record of Noah Woodruff, as it is Family History.

The misstatement in Timlow's History of Southington, Conn., was taken up with the Timlow Family in 1920 for correction, but they stated that Timlow's History of Southington was out of print and the plates destroyed.

WOODRUFF GENEALOGY.

MATTHEW WOODRUFF (1) and wife Hannah, came from Hartford to Farmington in 1640-1. He was one of the eighteen proprietors of the Town of Farmington in 1672, having been admitted as a freeman in 1657. (History of Southington, Conn., Page CCIVII.) He died at very old age in 1682. He was a man of considerable wealth for those days. He joined the church March 1st, 1672. His will probated Dec. 13th, 1682, mentions his wife, Hannah, who was admitted to the church in Farmington, April 2, 1654, also his will mentions three sons and a daughter named Hannah, wife of Richard Seymour, 2nd, but the Probate Court supplies name of another daughter Elizabeth, wife of John Broughton of Northampton, Mass.

Matthew and Hannah Woodruff had children as follows:

John, b. 1643; d. 1692.

Matthew, b. 1646; d. Nov. 1691 at Farmington, Conn.; m. Mary Plumb at Milford, Conn., June 16, 1668. He married 2nd wife, Sarah North in 1686; she was b. Dec. 23, 1653; d. 1692. She was the daughter of John and Mary (Bird) North. Matthew lived in Milford, Conn., until death of his first wife, then returned to Farmington, Conn. He was a freeman 1671. Adm. of his estate granted Dec. 3, 1691. (See Hartford Court Probate Records.)

Hannah, b. 1648; m. Richard Seymour.

Elizabeth, b. 1651; m. in 1678 John Broughton of Northampton.

Mary, b. Nov. 1654 (died young.)

(2) Samuel, b. Farmington, Conn., Aug. 26, 1661; d. Jan. 8, 1742.

SAMUEL WOODRUFF (2) Matthew (1)

Married Feb. 1685, Rebekah, daughter of John and Rebecca (Marvin) Clark. She was born 1662, died Aug. 4, 1737. He remained in Farmington until the birth of his sixth child, when about 1698 he removed to the south part of the town which is now Southington, and was the first white settler there. His house stood on the north side of the second road leading east towards the mountain, the then southeast corner of the north corner lot.

He is said to have been of great physical size and strength, of excellent disposition, and always on good terms with the Indians. His wife's tombstone in the north burying grounds records her age as sixty-five, but this is no doubt a mistake and should read seventy-five.

Samuel and Rebekah (Clark) Woodruff had children as follows:

Samuel, b. Jan. 20, 1686; d. Feb. 1776. Held rank as Captain. m. July 10, 1718, Esther Bird, b. in Farmington, Feb. 28, 1696; d. June 1765.

Jonathan, b. Nov. 30, 1688; d. April 29, 1712; m. July 10, 1711, Sarah Langdon, daughter of Joseph and Rosannah (Root) Langdon.

Rebekah, b. Feb. 4, 1690; m. Nov. 18, 1714, Wm. Smith.

Ruth C., b. Feb. 15, 1692; d. Nov. 14, 1713; m. Jan. 7, 1712, Nathaniel Porter.

Ebenezer, b. Dec. 27, 1694; m. Sarah, who died Feb. 5, 1744.

Daniel, b. Nov. 2, 1696; m. Oct. 13, 1719, Lydia Smith.

(3) David, b. Feb. 27, 1698-9; d. Jan. 14, 1767; m. Jan. 18, 1720, Mary Porter.

Hezekiah, b. Aug. 9, 1701; m. Dec. 3, 1730, Sarah Macon.

Rachel, b. Nov. 20, 1703; d. Oct. 20, 1768; m. Dec. 7, 1727, John Bell.

Abigail, b. Feb. 26, 1705-6; d. Nov. 8, 1707.

John, b. April 5, 1708; m. Aug. 11, 1729, Eunice Ward.

Rede, b. 1710; d. Aug. 4, 1753.

Lieut. David Woodruff (3), Samuel (2), Matthew (1)—b. Feb. 27, 1698-9; d. Jan. 13, 1767. He was first white child born within the limits of the town of Southington. He married Jan. 18, 1720, Mary Porter, daughter of Samuel and Martha (Freeman) Porter. She died May 14, 1784. The records state he bought of John Fenn of Farmington, Sept. 28, 1752, a dwelling house and 90 acres of land for £2500, bounded north on John Kinkaid, Daniel Brounson and Hezekiah Woodruff; east on Highway; south on Hawkins Hart, and west on Hezekiah Woodruff.

He was appointed and confirmed Ensign, May 1742, of the Kensington Military Company and he was in 1743 appointed and confirmed Lieutenant of Southington Militia. (See History of Southington, Conn., page CCLXI and Savage Genealogical Dictionary, Page 643.) He was buried in the north Burying Ground, Southington.

David and Mary (Porter) Woodruff had children as follows:

Solomon, b. May 14, 1723; d. Dec. 31, 1736.

Mary, b. March 21, 1725.

David, b. 1726; d. June 10, 1783. (See New Haven Probate Records, Vol. 15, Page 95.)

Mary, b. Nov. 12, 1728; m. July 10, 1749, David Cogswell.

(4) Noah, b. in Farmington, Conn., Jan. 15, 1731; d. Jan. 18, 1790; m. Dec. 5, 1752, Mary Barnes, daughter of Benj. and Hannah (Abbott) Barnes of Bradford, Conn.

Rachael, b. March 22, 1732-3; m. Feb. 27, 1755, Eluathan Norton.

Hezekiah, b. Feb. 20, 1734-5; d. Nov. 3, 1809.

Hulda, baptized June 26, 1737; m. March 23, 1758, Hawkins Hart.

Martha, baptized Nov. 4, 1739; m. March 12, 1767, Thos. Kinkaid.

Marcy, baptized March 14, 1742; m. March 14, 1768, James Root.

NOAH WOODRUFF (4), David (3), Samuel (2), Matthew (1)

A soldier in the Revolutionary War. Was a private in Captain Asa Bray's Co., Col. Roger Enos Reg. (See Connecticut in the Revolution, Page 620.) He afterwards became Captain through the recommendation of Gen. Israel Putnam, (Capt. Woodruff's Co., July 29, 1779, Connecticut in the Revolution, Page 622), who was a friend of the family. Gen. Putnam presented him with a fine horse. I have heard my grandfather, Hiram Woodruff, tell this many times says Fred'k O. Woodruff, resident of Lexington, Mass., 1920; also see Vol. 1910, Mass. Sons of Am. Revolution.

Noah and Mary (Barnes) Woodruff had children as follows:

Hannah, b. Oct. 4, 1753; d. Sept. 16, 1757.

Solomon, b. Dec. 11, 1763.

Roswell, b. June 12, 1768 (Farmington Church Records).

(5) David, b. May 26, 1770; d. in Enfield, Conn., June 10, 1839 (where he is buried.)

Ichabod and

Castina, baptized June 27, 1775. (See Farmington Church Records).

DAVID WOODRUFF (5), Noah (4), David (3), Samuel (2), Matthew (1)

Married May 1793, Eunice North, daughter of Seth North (see North Genealogy). She was born in Farmington, Conn., Oct. 25, 1773, died in Wethersfield, Conn., Jan. 19, 1826.

David and Eunice (North) Woodruff had children as follows:

(6) Hiram, b. Berlin, Conn., April 13, 1796; d. 1872 at Westville, Conn., where he and his wife Lydia (Burk) are buried. They were married in East Haddam, Conn., Oct. 31, 1821. Lydia, b. Aug. 19, 1794; d. Nov. 16, 1874. She was daughter of William Burk (see Life of William Burk, Boston Public Library).

David, b. Sept. 10, 1800; m. Emiline S. Allen. He died 1882 at Thompsonville, Conn.

Almina, b. Dec. 26, 1802; d. 1871; she married William Morrison of Thompsonville, Conn.

Eunice, b. 1804; d. 1865; she married Benj. Green.

Mary, b. 1806; d. 1875; m. John W. Parkhurst; he died in Newton Centre, Mass.

Julia, b. Feb. 14, 1808; d. 1892; m. Dana Read; lived in Springfield, Mass.

Lucretta, b. 1812; d. 1891; m. 1831 Henry B. Wilcox of Madison, Conn. He was born 1821, son of Abel and Anna (Field) Wilcox.

Hiram Woodruff (6), David (5), Noah (4), David (3), Samuel (2), Matthew (1)

Hiram Woodruff was of the firm of Hazard and Woodruff, Iron Founders and Mfgs. of Hardware at Windsorlocks, Conn. Later in life he moved to Westville, Conn., where he was engaged in the same line of business, and where he died in 1872.

Hiram and Lydia (Burk) Woodruff had children as follows:

(7) William Braddock, b. Middletown, Conn., Aug. 14, 1822; d. Boston, Feb. 2, 1904; m. Dec. 15, 1847, Julia Maria Abbe, daughter of Col. Robert M. Abbe (see Abbe Genealogy) at Enfield, Conn.

Harris, b. March 5, 1824; d. Nov. 23, 1899; m. May 1846, Harriet B. Griswold, b. July 18, 1827; d. Jan. 2, 1893. Their children were Alice Emma and Nellie; Nellie m. James B. Peet of Albany, N. Y., b. Oct. 14, 1894.

WILLIAM B. WOODRUFF (7), Hiram (6), David (5), Noah (4), David (3), Samuel(2), Matthew (1)

William B. Woodruff was educated in the public schools of Middletown, Conn., and Middletown Academy. At the age of nineteen he passed examinations and received his appointment to West Point Military Academy, but at the last moment for some unknown reason his parents strenuously objected to West Point and he was apprenticed for three years to his uncle, David Woodruff, stove and hardware manufacturer of Thompsonville, Conn. This was a life-long disappointment to him. He was with his uncle for several years. He was always interested in military life and was on March 1st, 1843, appointed Captain of 1st Company of the 19th Regiment of Infantry in the Militia of Conn. by Governor Chauncy F. Cleveland. About 1845 he moved to East Bridgewater, Mass., where he established himself in business in the same line. In 1858 he moved to Chelsea, Mass., where he engaged in several lines of business more or less successful until he entered the Fancy Goods business in Boston, organizing the "Boston Dollar Store," eventually establishing branch stores in several large cities—Springfield, Worcester, Albany and Troy. This business was most successful until the Treasurer of the Company took to speculating in the Stock Market with the Company's funds with the usual fatal results. This led to financial difficulties and final liquidation of the business, but Mr. Woodruff insisted that all debts be paid in full, which involved not only the sale of his home but consumed about all the cash at his command. He then opened a restaurant which ran for several years but this business was so distasteful to himself and his family that he sold out and in 1872 established himself as an Optician-Optometrist at No. 56 Bromfield Street, Boston, where he remained until January, 1902, when he retired at the age of eighty years. He was a prince among men, loving, conscientious, thoughtful and indulgent to his family and a true and sincere friend.

William B. and Julia Maria (Abbe) Woodruff had children as follows:

Carrie B., b. E. Bridgewater, Mass.. Aug. 25, 1849; d. Sept. 25, 1851.

Stella C., b. E. Bridgewater, Mass., April 25, 1853; m. Whitman R. Morton of Boston, Nov. 25, 1878. She was Pres. of Harvard Woman Club; Regent of Faneuil Hall Chapter Daughters Am. Revolution. Their children were:

Jesse W. Morton, b. Malden, Mass., Nov. 22, 1879; m. Marion Howes of Reading, Mass., Oct. 28, 1908. He graduated from Harvard in in class of 1902, Harvard Law School 1905, and was appointed to the Judiciary by Governor Channing Cox in 1922.

Fred W., b. May 22, 1882; d. Sept. 22, 1884.

(8) Frederick Orr, b. E. Bridgewater, Mass., June 2, 1856; m. Fannie Sturtevant, Feb. 18, 1880. She was born in Boston, June 4, 1858, graduated from Boston Public Schools and finished at Wheaton Seminary. She is an artist; a member of Woman's Club and Daughters of Am. Revolution. (See Sturtevant Genealogy.)

Frank, b. June 2, 1856; d. Oct. 25, 1857.
Lillie, b. March 26, 1866; d. July 16, 1867.
Maude E., b. Sept. 30, 1868 (unmarried).

FREDERICK O. WOODRUFF (8), William B. (7), Hiram (6), David (5), Noah (4), David (3), Samuel (2), Matthew (1). m. Fannie Sturtevant, Feb. 18, 1880.

Frederick Orr Woodruff was educated in the public schools of Chelsea, Mass., and Wheelers Preparatory School. After completing his studies at the age of nineteen years, he entered the employ of the old Publishing House of Ira Bradley & Co. on Cornhill, which concern was established the year Mr. Woodruff was born. In a few years he became a partner of the firm, the style of which was then changed to Bradley & Woodruff.

In 1891 having become largely interested in Real Estate. Mr. Woodruff sold out his interests in the book business to his partner in order to devote his entire attention to Real Estate. He became an acknowledged authority on Real Estate values in greater Boston. He organized large Real Estate trusts in Boston and New York, and the erection of many of the most modern business structures were due to his efforts.

He was the first President of the Massachusetts Real Estate Exchange, President Real Estate Co-Operative Bank, Charter Member and Director in the Exchange Trust Co., member of several clubs in Boston and suburbs. He was a Mason, being a member of Simon W. Robinson Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of Lexington, Mass., St. John's Lodge of Boston, St. Andrew's Chapter, the Boston Commandery, and Aleppo Temple of the Mystic Shrine. A member of the Massachusetts Society of Colonial Wars, and the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. He was one of the organizers and charter members of All Saints Episcopal Church of Brookline, Mass., and a member of its Vestry for a long period of years.

He was married February 18, 1880, to Fannie, daughter of William L. and Martha (Stevens) Sturtevant of the old Sturtevant family who in the early history of Boston owned a good share of Noddles Island, now East Boston. (See Sturtevant Genealogy).

In May, 1912, Mr. Woodruff and family made their home in Lexington, Mass.

Frederick O. and Fannie (Sturtevant) Woodruff had children as follows:

(9) Lewis Sturtevant, b. Boston, Jan. 5, 1881; m. May 25, 1904, Mildred Hoyt, daughter of Chas. C. Hoyt of Greenfield, Mass., and New York. (See Hoyt Genealogy). He attended the public schools of Brookline, Stones Preparatory School and Williams College.

Lewis and Mildred (Hoyt) Woodruff had children as follows:

(10) Chamberlain Hoyt, b. Feb. 4, 1905.

(10) Lewis Sturtevant, Jr., b. Dec. 27, 1908.

Lewis S. Woodruff (9) married second wife Adelia Johnson Gates (widow) June 28, 1916, at Lexington, Mass. Their children are:

Martha Frances, b. in Arlington, Mass., May 26, 1917.

Frederick Scott (Second) b. in Arlington, Mass., August 6, 1918.

(9) Albert William, b. Boston, April 2, 1882; m. Ellen Marshall Andrews of Cleveland, Ohio, May 20, 1907.

He married second wife, June 22, 1915, Marjorie M. Fhey, b. Cleveland, O., Oct. 10, 1886, daughter of Louis Henry and Elizabeth (Canavan) Fhey.

(9) Frederick Scott, b. Boston, May 8, 1887. He attended the public schools in Brookline and Volkman's Preparatory School in Boston, from which he graduated in 1905, and entered the employ of Kidder, Peabody & Co., Bankers, of Boston. At the outbreak of the World War, he volunteered in the U. S. Navy, and his record is as follows:

ABBE GENEALOGY

JOHN ABBE, settled in Salem, Mass. He was entered as "Inhabitant" ye 2nd of 11 month 1636."

His wife, Mary Loring, died in Wenham, Mass., Sept. 9, 1662. He then married Mary, widow of Robert Goldsmith, Nov. 25, 1674.

He was granted land most of which was situated in Enon, that part afterwards called Wenham, Mass. He joined the church a short time before his death in 1698 (as only church members could make wills) and he made over his property to his eldest son John in trust in which son John is to give life support to his father and father's wife and to pay certain legacies to his children, which are all named.

This will of, Deed of Trust in Salem, Mass., Probate Records was entered Aug. 3, 1683, and in the Deed of Trust he twice mentions his children. But for some reason his estate was settled by his youngest son Thomas, for the Essex County Probate Court Records show that letters of administration were granted to Thomas Abbe, son of John Abbe, senior, Dec. 12, 1702.

Their children were as follows:

John, lived in Wenham, Mass.
Samuel, settled in Windham, Conn.
Sarah
Mercy, married Mr. Killam.
Rebeckah, married Richard Kimball.
Obadiah, settled in Enfield; married but no children.
(2) Thomas, b. 1656, Wareham, Mass.; d. Enfield, Conn., May 17, 1728.

LIEUT. THOMAS (2), son of John (1), settled in Enfield, Conn., in 1682. Married Dec. 16, 1683, Sarah, daughter of Walter and Sarah Fairfield of Marblehead, Mass. She was born in Reading, Mass. His will dated 1720 mentions his wife and children, two sons and two daughters. He was a soldier in King Phillips War and was wounded in the Great Swamp battle. He was lieutenant in Enfield Trained Band. Was a prominent citizen of the town. From him are descended all the Enfield Abbe's through his sons, Thomas and John. (See "Soldiers King Phillips War," Page 152.) Upon the organization of the army for expedition against Narraganset Fort, Major Samuel Appleton was appointed to the command of the Massachusetts forces, and on page 154 gives list of names of soldiers whom the Court in May 1676 voted to repay the losses of those who were "damnified" by the burning of Major Appleton's tent at Narraganset appears the name of Thomas Abbe, £3, 16S. Also on pages 156-7 refers to papers preserved in Massachusetts Archives, Vol. 68, Page 97, the roll of Major Samuel Appleton's Company in Narraganset Campaign, appears the name of Thomas Abbey. Also see Savage's Genealogical Dictionary, Page 6.

Lieut. Thomas and Sarah (Fairfield) Abbe had children as follows:

Sarah, b. March 31, 1684; m. John Greer.
Thomas, b. Oct. 30, 1686; d. 1759.
Mary, b. Feb. 3, 1689.
(3) John, b. Sept. 27, 1692; d. 1740.
Tibertha, b. March 29, 1696; m. Nov. 19, 1713, John Warner of Enfield, Conn. (Tibertha is mentioned in her father's will as Abigal).

JOHN ABBE (3), born Sept. 27, 1692, Thomas (2), John (1) was one of the first settlers of upper King St. Married Hannah, daughter of Daniel Boreman and wife (Hannah Wright) of Wetherfield, Conn. She was born Dec. 18, 1693. Daniel Boreman was son of Samuel Boreman and his wife (Mary Betts). Samuel was son of Christopher Boreman of Clayton, England, and his wife (Julian Carter). This name undoubtedly should be Boardman.

Their children were as follows:

(4) John, b. April 18, 1717, in Enfield; d. 1794, in his 78th year, in Enfield. (See his gravestone.)
Hannah, b. April 19, 1719.
Thomas, b. Dec. 18, 1721; d. Cape Britain, a soldier in 1745.
Sarah, b. Jan. 23, 1723. M JOHN BURROUGHS.
Daniel, b. May 8, 1726; d. Cape Britain, a soldier in 1745.
Martha, b. March 1, 1728. M Isaac Sh[illegible] (2) John Sh[illegible].
Mary, b. May 14, 1730.
Tibertha, b. March 9, 1732. M JOHN BEMENT.
Richard, b. Aug. 1, 1735; was soldier Revolutionary War.

JOHN ABBE (4), John (3), Thomas (2), John (1)

Married Feb. 11, 1739, Sarah, daughter of Captain Timothy Root and his wife, Sarah (Pease) of Somers, Conn. Sarah, John's wife, died Nov. 23, 1771. He was a revolutionary soldier. His name is in list of men who marched from Connecticut towns to relief of Boston at the Lexington Alarm 1775. His record is as follows:

Third regiment, 2nd Company; Israel Putnam, Colonel; Experience Stoors, Captain. Was recruited in Windham County, April-May 1775.

Marched in May to camps formed around Boston and was stationed during the siege in Putnam Centre Division at Cambridge until expiration of term of service, Dec. 10, 1775. In July the Company was adopted as "Continental." Was engaged at Bunker Hill as stated in "Connecticut in the Revolution," Page 53. His will is dated Feb. 2, 1789, probated Sept. 5, 1794. Also see Volume 1910 Mass. Society Sons of the American Revolution.

John and Sarah (Root) Abbe had children as follows:

John, b. Nov. 27, 1739; d. in infancy.
Sarah, b. 1741; d. Feb. 29, 1772.
Obadiah, b. 1745.
